John Harkes' Record in England. Major Sylvester received a letter this morning from E. R. Henry, assistant commissioner of the Scotland Yard detective corps, giving the record of John Harkes in England from 1890 until 1899. Harkes is one of the two men wanted here for picking a pocket during the last inauguration. He was arrested with John Morgan, and both were released on bail. The bond was forfeited because of their non-appear-

In the letter received this morning Harkes is shown to have been arrested eleven times for assaults, vagrancy, larceny, attempted larceny and unlawful possession, under a number of aliases, during the time specified, and four months was the longest sentence he received. It was stated that Morgan was his compan-ion, but that he had never been convicted.

CONSIDERING THE CHANGES

SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE MAK-ING UP HIS SLATE.

Additions and Promotions Due July -Removal of the Chief's Quarters.

Major Sylvester is unusually busy just now considering the many changes that are to be made about the beginning of the next fiscal year. He is going over the records made by the members of the force in order to select the best men for promotion, and at the same time is arranging to move his office to the second floor of the build-

Randall line from 8th street wharf at 7 | Early in July the major will establish a.m., for Colonial Beach, Nomini and river his office on the upper floor, and the office which he now occupies will be fitted up for the captain and assistant superintendent. The quarters occupied by Captain Boardman, chief of the detective corps. will be enlarged and so arranged that he will be able to enjoy more privacy than he has heretofore been accorded. Additional rooms will also be provided for clerks. On the second floor of the building a photograph gallery is to be established, and there will also be a room fitted up to be used in the work of measuring prisoners. When the department photographer gets to work more pictures will probably be taken than heretofore and a more complete gallery will be kept. Captain Boardman is arranging a new system of keeping records of those whose pictures are in the gallery, and in a short time he will have a complete history to accompany each photograph.

In the matter of selecting men for promotion Major Sylvester is experiencing some difficulty. Almost every sergeant on the force is anxious to become a lieutenant and the friends of many of them are work-ing for them. Several of the sergeants are making no fight for promotion, but are resting on their records alone.

In the event of Capt. Austin's retirement, which now seems likely, the position of captain and assistant superintendent will have to be filled. Capt. Boardman has been in a measure slated for this promotion, but Maj. Sylvester dislikes very much to have him give up the important branch of the work in which he is now engaged. As chief of the detective corps, Capt. Boardman has been a success, and realizing the difficulty in selecting a man to take his place, the major is anxious to retain him where he is. He may determine, however, to give Capt. Boardman the promotion and select a man from the ranks to take charge of the detective force.

Acting Lieut. W. W. Jordan, who has been serving as inspector for several months, will, it is believed, receive a promotion, as his work has been highly satisfactory to his superior officer. Among the sergeants whose names are prominently mentioned for promotion are Williams, Hodges, Sullivan, Ellsworth, Murphy, Byrnes, Goss, Elliott and Matthews. The tenth precinct in the county will be organ-ized about the middle of July. Mounted Sergt. Matthews of the eighth precinct has been frequently mentioned as the only man who will likely be made lieutenant of this precinct. He has been on the force for a number of years, and because of having done duty in the county he has become familiar with the territory, and under-stands what is to be expected of the policemen who do duty there. When Maj. Sylvester announces his list of appointments and promotions, however, there will doubta number of surprises and disap-

HYATTSVELLE NEWS.

Council Authorizes Frederic Minshall to Install Water Works

cial Correspondence of The Evening Star.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., June 14, 1901. At the call of Mayor Tierney a special meeting of the common council of Hyattsville was held last evening at the law offices of Mr. Arthur Carr, justice of the peace. All the members, with the exception of Councilman Emmons, were present, Dr. Joseph R. Owens, president of the council, occupied the chair, and Mr. Clarence N. Walker acted as secretary. The meeting had before it a communication from the contractors who were to install the water works of the town, stating that they could not do the work at this time owing to the heavy pressure of contracts elsewhere. In view of this fact, Councilman H. B. Major offered a resolution, which was unanimously passed, to the effect that Messrs. J. C. Guild & Co. of Chattanooga, Tenn., having declined to enter into contract as they promised to do to install the water works plant in the town of Hyattsville, Md., and that it is now necessary to proceed at once to the completion of said plant; therefore, be it enacted and ordained by the mayor and common council of this town, that the offer of Frederic Minshall, civil engineer, to do the work which Messrs. Guild & Co. proposed to do, be, and is hereby, accepted."
It was stipulated that Minshall shall give the mayor and common council of Hyatts ville, should his offer be accepted, a full and ample receipt of all sums of money that may be due him, or shall hereafter be due him, under his contract with the town as said engineer; and further, that he shall enter into contract with the town for the installation of said system of water works, according to the plans and specifi-cations prepared by Minshall, as engineer, & Co. of Chattanooga, Tenn., Minshall giving to the mayor and common council a satisfactory bond for the faithful and proper performance of his contract.

It was also a part of the resolution that water committee of the council, under the advice of the attorney, be directed to secure the contract and bond from Mr. Minshall in accordance with the proposals, and that the water work committee be authorized and empowered to recommend to the mayor and common council a competent civil engineer in the place of Mr. Minshall, to carry on the work as provided by the water reprise till. by the water works bill.

As a result of the change of contract, Prof. Henry Lanahan of Baltimore county, and a member of the faculty of the Mary land Agricultural College, was elected corporation engineer, at a salary to be determined later. An ordinance was passed by the council granting the privilege of establishing a telephone exchange and erecting poles to the Cheasapeake and Potomac Telephone Company.

A resolution was unanimously adopted giving a draft to M. J. Drummond of New York for $3,000 for 6-inch pipe to be used in the installation of water in the town. The water committee was authorized to purchase a lot for the purpose of con-structing a water tank and standpipe. The location of these appliances, it is said, will be at Wine avenue and Franklin streets, about the highest point in the town. Applications for the position of town bailiff were announced by the secretary, and a ballot was taken. Mr. George Mc-Farland received all the votes of the council, and was appointed to the office for the ensuing year. The compensation of the town bailiff last year was $50, but the council adopted a resolution increasing it to $60 In the case in which J. E. ## Nothing Tastes Good

And eating is simply perfunctory -done because it must be.

This is the common complaint of the dyspeptic. If eating sparingly would cure dyspepsia, few would suffer from it long. The only way to cure dyspepsia, which is difficult digestion, is to give vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured the niece of Frank Fay, 106 N. St., South Boston, Mass., who writes that she had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia for six years; had been without appetite and had been troubled with sour stomach and headache. She had tried many other medicines in vain. Two oottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla made her well.
